

Your privacy is strictly valued.

You may feel free to contact us for design assistance, building cost estimates or other questions in planning for your new Hawaii home.

Please be assured that any contact or other information shared between us will be honored and kept strictly private and confidential.

We would never share your information without your specific request (such as when actually assisting in your building project, helping with your architectural plans, permitting, etc.) and we will not contact you, unless you have requested a call-back, information or building support from us.
